The church contains his tomb and many great works of art. Visits to the Inferiore and Superiore Basilica, Santa Chiara Church, and St. Mary of the Angels Basilica are included. In the afternoon, the choir will have time to rehearse for this evening's concert. Dinner will be served at the hotel.

Day 6- Worcester and Gloucester

On the banks of the River Severn stands the great sandstone Cathedral of Worcester. Worcester was home to Frances Havergal, author of "Take My Life and Let it Be", whose father was a clergyman here. You will have an opportunity to visit the Royal Worcester porcelain shops. The city of Gloucester boasts a small church that changed the world! Here you'll learn about George Whitefield, who grew up in the congregation of St. Mary de Crypt. He was at Oxford with the Wesley brothers and became an ardent member of their Holy Club. Known as the greatest orator of his day, George Whitefield's talents led him to minister in America. St. Mary de Crypt also produced Robert Raikes, founder of the Sunday School movement. Both Whitefield and Raikes had a profound influence upon Wesley. Wesley left his fellowship at Lincoln College to take over Whitefield's Bristol ministry, leading to the founding of the "New Room". He also embraced Raikes Sunday School movement. At St. Mary de Crypt, the first Women's Society was founded.

Day 7- Epworth

The quiet English countryside and green, rolling hills will delight you as you travel to remote Epworth in the Fen Country. Here Samuel and Susanna Wesley raised their brood of children in the Old Rectory while he served the Parish Church for 39 years. You'll become familiar with the upbringing and early life of John and Charles Wesley when you visit their childhood home. You'll see Memorial Church, built with contributions from around the world. Then visit St. Andrews Church at Epworth and prepare for your formal evening concert here.

Day 8- Cotswolds, Bourton-on-the-Water, Broadway, Stow-on-the-Wold

Explore the charming villages of the Cotswolds, where honey colored cottages cluster together in secluded valleys. Even the names are charming -- Stow-on-the-Wold, Bourton-on-the-Water. Complete this storybook day with an English Cream Tea or a visit to some of the quaint shops in Broadway, where the tale of Peter Pan was written.

Day 9- Stratford and Oxford

You'll glimpse life as it was in the day of William Shakespeare when you visit his birthplace in Stratford-upon-Avon. Not far away, he courted his wife, Anne Hathaway, in the garden of her delightful thatched-roof cottage. You'll also drive past Holy Trinity Church, where Shakespeare is buried. ### Day 5- Amphipolis, Philippi and Neapolis

Like Paul and Silas, you'll travel to Amphipolis, where you will see the ruins of many Christian basilicas. There he baptized Lydia, a cloth merchant, to become the first Christian baptized on European soil. You'll also see a crypt dating from the Roman period, which is thought to have served as a prison for Paul. You'll see the famous Acropolis, the Market Place, Basilica and the Theatre. View the Old City Ramparts, the Galerius Arch that rises over the Via Egnatia, and the Archaeological Museum. See two of the most beautiful basilicas in the city, St. Sophia and St. Demetrius, dedicated to a distinguished member of the Roman army and a martyred Christian convert.

Day 7- Meteora and Delphi

Visit the rock forest of Meteora in western Thessaly and ponder the rough terrain through which the apostle Paul walked during his missionary journey. See the famous Byzantine monasteries perched precariously on summits of soaring, sheer-sided grey rock pinnacles. Visit one of these monasteries and enjoy learning about their history which dates back to the 14th century. Travel to scenic Delphi, the religious center of the ancient Greek world, considered by early Greeks to be the center of the world and marked by the conical stone, called the omphalos or navel. Walk the Sacra Via to the Athenian Treasury, the Theatre, and the Temple of Apollo where the oracle performed prophetic rituals. With innumerable pagan ruins surrounding your walk, capture a glimpse of the challenge the apostle Paul encountered as he sought to preach the Gospel of Christ in Macedonia. Visit the Museum where you will view many ancient treasures, the chief of which is the 5th century bronzed Charioteer, complete with even eyelashes.

Day 8- Corinth and Cenchræae

Enter the great theater and have a worship service in the place where Paul witnessed faithfully for Christ. Not far away is the stadium where chariot races took place and gladiatorial combats were held. Tradition has it that Paul himself fought here against wild beasts. Visit the ruins of St. John's Basilica where early Christian tradition tells us the "disciple whom Jesus loved" was buried. Plus, you will see one of the "Seven Wonders of the Ancient World", the ruins of the Temple of Diana (Artemis). Next, set sail for Island of Patmos. Once there, you will visit the Monastery of St. John, high on the mountain overlooking the entire island. Walk down to the Grotto of the Apocalypse and the caves where the exiled Apostle John lived and was inspired by God to write the Book of Revelation as well as other letters to the early church.

Day 11- Rhodes Cruise

Fleeing Jerusalem, the crusaders known as the Knights of St. John settled on the Island of Rhodes. You will see the castles and the old city they built which still impress visitors.
